Explore Spain

You ran 42 km. Now enjoy Spain at your own pace, with all logistics handled by Espresso.

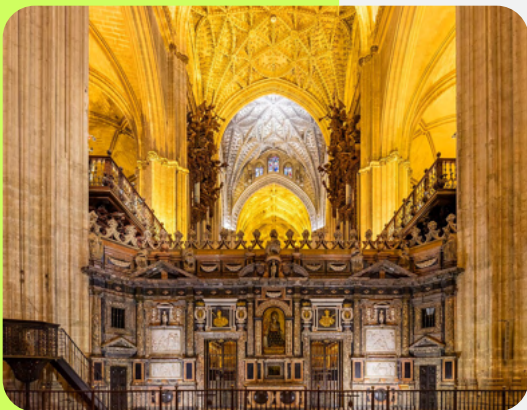

Barcelona:

Traveling from Madrid to Barcelona means trading the energy of the race for Gaudí's architecture. The Sagrada Família, Park Güell, and the undulating facades of Casa Batlló and Casa Milà turn the city into an open-air museum. After the race, stretch your legs in Barceloneta with your feet in the Mediterranean sand, get lost in the narrow streets of the Gothic Quarter, and wrap up the day with tapas and wine in El Born.

Valencia:

The birthplace of paella and home to some of Europe's most futuristic architecture: the City of Arts and Sciences. Valencia combines beaches, the gardens of the former Turia riverbed, now a 9 km-long park and a charming historic center. A relaxed pace, great food, and guaranteed sunshine to rest your legs.

Seville:

The quintessential Andalusian Spain: live flamenco, the Real Alcázar, Seville Cathedral the largest Gothic cathedral in the world and the Plaza de España. Narrow streets, orange trees in bloom, and tapas on every corner.
